Commander's Comments

Comrades,

August was a very busy month with a lot of activities and programs.

I would like to thank all the volunteers that put in their time and hard work to get it done, especially our Auxiliary members and Canteen staff.

In September we will be hosting our 9-11 breakfast for all the First Responders, they are the ones that keep our community safe 24/7. We will also have our annual POW-MIA banquet on September 15th at 6:30pm, please join us and be part of this special event honoring our POW-MIA Heroes.

And lastly, thank you for all your support that you have given me and thank you for all the wonderful people who have been around to help me and my wife to make our Post one of the best in Texas.

Have a wonderful day and stay safe and healthy.

Julio E. Martinez
